Abstract (en)

[origin: EP2618084A2] The flap fastening device (31) has side edges that are provided with a tray. The flap fastening device is integrally formed and a fixing device (32) for attaching the flap fastening device on the side edge of the shelf surface. The flap is pivotally supported to the support surface by bearing device (18). An upper stop (20) is provided to limit the pivoting movement of the flap. Independent claims are included for the following: (1) stacking device; and (2) household refrigeration appliance.
