Abstract (en)

The present disclosure refers to an under-garment (10, 110, 210) adapted to be associated with a garment (20), said under-garment (10, 110, 210) being configured to include or to be associated with an inflatable protection element (12, 112, 212) or airbag. The present disclosure also refers to a method for equipping a garment (20) with an inflatable protection element (12, 112, 212) or airbag. The method comprises the steps of associating the inflatable protection element (12, 112, 212) with an under-garment (10, 110, 210), and subsequently associating said under-garment (10, 110, 210) provided with said inflatable protection element (12, 112, 212) with said garment (20).
