Abstract (en)
[origin: WO2012136469A1] A card loader is intended to be fixed to a printer (23), the loader comprising at least one loading device intended to hold at least one card to be printed, and at least one driving device (16; 19). Each driving device (16; 19) transfers the cards to be printed from a loading device to the printer (23). At least one driving device (16; 19) is able to move in order to allow the printer (23), or one said loading device, to use, in order to manipulate a card, a space which is occupied by said driving device(s) (16; 19) when said driving device(s) (16; 19) is/are transferring a card to be printed to the printer.
