Abstract (en)

[origin: EP2702883A1] The device (1) has a bow tie (3), and a connection unit e.g. simple textile strip (5) or semi-rigid collar, placed interdependent of the bow tie, where the connection unit receives a containment device (7) e.g. plate or bar, of the connection unit by a body part e.g. neck, arm, hair or shoulder, of person. A fixing unit e.g. locking pin, pin and fastening loop (11) or tab, attaches the device to the body part or clothing or wearing accessory e.g. hat or underwear, of the person. The connection unit passes around the body part of the person. The containment unit is securely mounted to the tie. An independent claim is also included for a decorative accessory kit for receiving a bow tie or decorative accessory.
