Abstract (en)
[origin: EP2712267A1] The housing part (11) has left and right individual parts (13a, 13b) made of plastic. The two individual parts are designed identical or arranged in an identical arrangement or a rotated arrangement at or as the housing part. Other parts are designed as a holder for function units of a cooking hob. The latter parts are identically designed relative to each other. The former individual parts downwardly cover heating devices of the hob. The former individual parts are provided with openings (20a, 20b) i.e. ventilation openings.
