Abstract (en)

[origin: EP2722469A1] The part (10) has a set of pins (14) that is intended to be received in a post housing (31) when a set of free ends of a set of fingers is introduced into a notch to ensure assembly of an end of the part to a side (25) comprising the notch. A recess is arranged for passage of a thread chain (27) of an edge of a panel (23) such that the thread chain of the edge is placed between the part and a bottom (24) of a rabbet (20) in a position of assembly of the panel to a post (19). An independent claim is also included for a fence.
