Abstract (en)
[origin: WO2012175172A1] The invention relates to a method for producing a marked meat product. In order to provide a novel method for producing a marked meat product, which makes it possible to produce different marked meat products in a simple manner, wherein the enjoyment of consuming said meat products is not mitigated by the mark thereon, it is proposed with this invention that initially, an edible film is imprinted with food coloring. Subsequently, the imprinted film is applied to a quantity of meat, and finally, the meat, with the film applied thereto, is cooked.
