Abstract (en)
[origin: EP2725139A1] The safety fence (1) has the posts (3) that are arranged along the protective area of a stretched network (2), and are interconnected with each other by a long profile portion (5) at connecting points (8). The projection portion formed in the cross sectional shape of an omega, C-or U-profile, is arranged in the post. The supporting portion (11,12) and/or lateral anchoring wires (10) are provided with the energy adsorption item (21). An independent claim is included for a kit for establishing safety fence.
