Abstract (en)

[origin: EP2730477A1] The transport trolley (1) has a trolley frame (3) that is provided for positioning transported elements. A roller (5) is provided for displacing transport trolley. The trolley frame is moved sideways relative to floor transportation system (2) by lath (7,8) and is lowered from lath by connecting rod (9). The connecting rod is provided for placing an annular extension element (10) to the floor-level transportation system.
