Abstract (en)
[origin: WO2013010196A1] The invention relates to a roulette arrangement (20) comprising a roulette wheel (4) and a holding device (10) with a number of supports (2), wherein the holding device (10) has a number of holding elements (3) for connecting the roulette wheel (4), wherein the length of the holding elements (3) is adjustable, wherein the roulette wheel (4) has receiving openings (11) for the holding elements (3), wherein the holding elements (3) are introduced into the receiving openings (11) and connect the holding device (10) rigidly and fixedly to the roulette wheel (4). According to the invention, provision is made that the receiving openings (11) of the roulette wheel (4) are formed all the way through, with the holding elements (3) being introduced from the underside of the roulette wheel (4) into the receiving openings (11), that a closure element (34) is fitted from the upper side of the roulette wheel (4) into the receiving opening (11), that the holding elements (3) have a thickened part (37), and that the roulette wheel (4) is clamped between the thickened part (37) and the closure element (34).
