Abstract (en)
[origin: EP2743620A2] The refrigerator (100) has a refrigerating compartment housing (116) that defines a refrigerating compartment interior (106). A shelf (108) is arranged in the inside of the compartment and is partially in contact with a holding element (110). The holding element has a connecting element that engages a recess of the refrigerating compartment housing. The recess is arranged in curved sections of the refrigerating compartment housing. An arc wall portion connects side wall of refrigerating compartment housing with bottom of refrigerating compartment housing.
