Abstract (en)
[origin: EP2745739A1] The device (11) has mounting element (12) on which support tab (17) is arranged. A wall holder (24) is mounted on mounting element, and securing unit is provided on base portion (18) of support tab. A stop lug (29) is aligned in support tab such that detachment of wall holder is prevented. The support tab is movable into release position, in which stop lug passes out of wall holder. The stop lug is secured to supporting tab and support plate of wall holder with respect to pivoting movement in which supporting tab is pivotable from use position into release position.
