Abstract (en)
[origin: WO2012163311A1] The invention relates to a device (1) that is constructed according to a predetermined method. By means of said method, packages (2) such as garbage bags containing unordered heterogeneous material are opened. The closed garbage bags together with the contents thereof are fed to a cavity (4), in which the packages (2) are opened and the entire filling material is mixed up. For this purpose, at least one cavity (4) is provided, which is equipped with a plurality of nozzles (7, 7'), the sharp gas jet (8, 8', 8'') of which is directed at the packages (2) to be opened, whereby the surface of the packages is damaged.
