Abstract (en)
[origin: EP2754708A1] Dishwasher tablet for cleaning kitchen appliances and dirty surfaces, preferably from the commercial kitchen area comprising a main cleaner system for cleansing a machine and an integrated precleaner system that begins to exert its effect already in a prewash cycle of the machine, comprises an alkaline cleaner. An independent claim is included for manufacturing the dishwasher tablet with the alkaline cleaner for cleaning kitchen appliances and dirty surfaces, comprising mixing detergent components comprising alkali system components, additional detergent components, other matrix components to form a detergent base composition, dividing the detergent base composition into a main cleaner mixture and a precleaner mixture, providing the main cleaner mixture with the retarding agent to provide a main cleaner compartment, and combining precleaner compartments with the main cleaner compartment.
