Abstract (en)
[origin: EP2754968A1] The radiator cover (1) has a front plate (2) for front-sided covering of a radiator, a cover plate (4) for upper-sided covering of the radiator and a support structure made of rod elements for supporting the front plate and the cover plate. Elastic intermediate elements are attached between the rear side of the front plate and the upper surface of the support structure facing the front plate. The intermediate elements are formed as rubber elements, particularly foam rubber strips.
