Abstract (en)
[origin: WO2013059847A1] The invention relates to an arrangement with two locking devices which are arranged either side of a movable furniture part (2) for locking the movable furniture part (2) with respect to a furniture body (16) in a locking position (VS). Each locking device has a blocking device (40) which prevents the locking position (VS) from being reached in a blocking position (BS). Each locking device has a releasing means (45) by means of which the blocking position (BS) of the blocking device associated with the other locking device (40) can be cancelled.
