Abstract (en)
[origin: EP2786667A2] A leather laminating method and an apparatus manufactured by applying the leather laminating method. A waterproof membrane (204) may be sandwiched between two layers of breathable materials, and a waterproof breathable (WPB) material (102) may be formed. The WPB material (102) may be laminated to a leather material (101) by using a dot adhesive, and a laminate construction may be created. The laminate construction may be cut into pieces, and the pieces may be sewn together into a hand-covering garment.
