Abstract (en)
[origin: EP2789263A1] Ottoman storage bed with a single front, which comprises a storage compartment in two horizontally joined parts (1) and a lid that can be embodied in two parts (2) with lifting and lowering means that comprise hydraulic mechanisms (3) and (4) installed on the inner face of the lateral sides of the storage compartment (1), wherein it additionally has an intermediate supporting element (5) emerging from the upper edge of the drawer (1), on which additional hydraulic means (6) are disposed. It is achieved for the lid to have a higher number of hydraulic means for lifting and lowering, and distributed in a regular manner; to provide a point of support and rest for the lid, as well as for the inner space of the storage compartment to be single, undivided, without effective and nominal loss of useful inner space.
