Abstract (en)
[origin: WO2013124346A1] The invention relates to a seating furniture which comprises a seating surface (132), a supporting structure (160, 161, 162, 163), and a cover (134). The supporting structure (160, 161, 162, 163) is designed to support the seating surface (132) with respect to a base (131) and to keep the supporting structure at a distance from said base. The supporting structure (160, 161, 162, 163) is designed to be foldable such that said structure can be releasably fixed in an unfolded state. The cover (134) is designed to at least partly cover the supporting structure (160, 161, 162, 163), said cover (134) extending outward from an edge (135) of the seating surface (132) in a direction away from the seating surface (132).
