Abstract (en)
[origin: WO2013159130A1] Rear wall (10) for a drawer (50), having a plate (11) extending substantially over the entire width (51) of the drawer (50), wherein the rear wall (10), when mounted, is held in the region of drawer side walls (54, 55) of the drawer (50) by rear wall holders (21, 22), said rear wall holders (21, 22) being in contact with the drawer side walls (54, 55). The rear wall (10) has at least one additional reinforcing device (1), which is separate from the rear wall holders (21, 22), for increasing the stability of the plate (11), said reinforcing device being cable of being connected - preferably detachably - to the plate (11).
