Abstract (en)
[origin: EP2736304A1] The fabric (10) consists of multiple electrically conductive threads (62,64) that are extended along a warp direction and a weft direction. The cord strands (30,50) comprises cords (32,52) extended along and connected to a portion of the electrically conductive threads. A pair of hollow weave portion (20,40) formed of multiple cavities (26,46) is extended along a portion of the respective cords. A pair of insulating separation layer (34,54) is introduced into the cavities of the hollow weave portions.
