Abstract (en)
[origin: WO2015010938A1] A printing system (102) for pre-personalizing a document is described. The printing system (102) comprises a printing device (104) to print a matrix comprising a plurality of categories of sub-pixels. The printing device (104) further prints a plurality of categories of positioning marks. Further, each category of positioning marks is associated with a respective category of sub-pixels.
