Abstract (en)

[origin: WO2014012645A2] The invention relates to a picking unit for corn or similar for the harvesting attachment of a harvester, said unit comprising a picking nip (10), counter-rotating feed rollers, counter-circulating feed chains (13) and horizontally rotating cutting blades (19). In order to improve a picking unit of this type, the drives for the feed rollers, the feed chains (13) and the cutting blades (19) can be adjusted independently of one another.
