Abstract (en)
[origin: WO2014027915A1] A gas flare disposed at an end of a supply pipe member for directing a gas flow to a head member, the flare including a slot for ejecting the gas flow and a shroud. The shroud surrounds the slot, at least part of the base member and at least part of the head member of the gas flare. The shroud directs the ejected gas flow between the shroud and the head member.
