Abstract (en)
[origin: EP2889192A2] A wiper blade (100) wherein a spoiler is integrated in a lever assembly. The wiper blade has a wiper rubber (1100) and the lever assembly holds the wiper rubber and connects to a wiper arm (200, 300). The lever assembly has a plurality of rotatably connected levers (2100, 2200L, 2200R, 2300L, 2300R). A longitudinally extending partial spoiler (2510L, 2510R, 2520L, 2520R) is formed in at least one of the plurality of levers. The lever assembly includes a lever joint (2400L, 2400R) rotatably interconnecting adjacent levers. The lever joint is interposed between one of adjacent levers and the other of the adjacent levers. The lever joint is fitted to the one of the adjacent levers through insertion in the longitudinal direction of the lever assembly and is rotatably coupled to the other of the adjacent levers through pressing.
