Abstract (en)
[origin: EP2926680A2] A dual chamber hinged food storage container (100) is disclosed. The dual chamber food storage container (100) includes a first resealable container (102) and a second resealable container (108) joined by a hinge (114). The dual chamber food storage container (100) may assume a compact folded configuration for transportation and storage, as well as a convenient opened configuration for serving the food items stored in the dual chamber food storage container (100).
