Abstract (en)
[origin: EP2955125A1] A continuous band for the production of basket-type bags from plastic-coated paper for fruit and vegetable produce and similar products, where the continuous band consists of a continuous sheet of plastic-coated paper whereon, in correspondence with each of the sectors of the same and longitudinally aligned, corresponding to the subsequent manufacture of the bags, a number of rectangular plastic-coated cardboard plates are disposed, located in such a way that on completion of the corresponding heat-seals, said rectangular plastic plates are located on opposite sides of the bag produced which, once filled with the product to be packaged, adopts the form of a box or basket. The continuous band shall feature polyethylene reinforcements at the areas corresponding to the heat-seals and, as an option and in order to increase the mechanical strength of the basket-type bag, at the periphery of the windows and of the perforations.
