Abstract (en)
[origin: EP2977965A1] Disclosed is a banknote handling apparatus 100 including an inlet 24, transport units 7 and 8, a recognition unit 3, a serial number reading unit which reads a serial number of each of the banknotes, a stacking unit 5 which stacks a banknote recognized as normal, and a reject unit 6 to which a banknote recognized as a banknote to be rejected is dispensed. The banknote handling apparatus further includes a registration unit which registers the serial number in advance, a checking unit which checks the read serial number against the registered serial number, and a control unit which performs a predetermined process on a particular banknote, of which the serial number has turned out to correspond with any of the registered serial numbers as a result of the checking.
