Abstract (en)

[origin: EP2985740A1] The invention relates to a cash cassette (10, 100, 200) comprising a bottom unit (18) on which the notes of value of the value note stack (16) stand. Further, a retracting flap (28) is provided which is movable between a retracting position and a swiveled-away position. The cash cassette (10, 100, 200) is designed such that a movable bottom element (40, 54) of the bottom unit (18) is coupled to the retracting flap (28) such that at least the movable bottom element (40, 54) is movable together with the retracting flap (28) between the retracting position and the swiveled-away position.
