Abstract (en)
[origin: WO2014190169A2] Disclosed embodiments are directed toward driver implements (e.g., 100; 370; 400; 500) and methods (e.g., 700; 750) for driving rigid members into a support surface. In some embodiments, the disclosed driver implement is combined with a power machine (e.g., 10; 200; 300) that provides operation signals to the driver implement. Other embodiments disclose a rigid member that is configured to be driven into a support surface by various embodiments of the driver implement.
