Abstract (en)
[origin: WO2015025012A1] In a machine (1) according to the invention, machine-recognisable codes (2, 3, 4) that can be externally read out are attached to said machine and read out using a read device (7), each machine-recognisable code (2, 3, 4) being converted into at least one piece of information (15) concerning the operating instructions, maintenance instructions and/or assembly instructions using an electronic database (11, 12), said information subsequently being displayed on an optical receiving unit (8) of the read device (7) (cf. Fig. 1).
