Abstract (en)

[origin: WO2015067873A2] The invention relates to a motor vehicle having a roof (140) and including a cartridge (102) that has an openable body section (104) and is placed on the roof (140). Said motor vehicle also includes a transparent panel (136), placed on the roof (140) and located behind the openable body section (104). Said panel (136) is placed behind the cartridge (102) and directly adhered to the roof (140) so as to help maintain the rigidity of the vehicle.
