Abstract (en)

[origin: WO2015197577A1] The invention relates to a truck mixer pump (10) comprising a vehicle chassis (14) and a vehicle body located on the vehicle chassis, said body having: a body frame (16) and a boom pedestal (22) mounted thereon for a material placing boom (26); a mixer drum (24) with a front and a rear drum support (18, 20), when viewed in the direction of travel; and a drive unit for the mixer drum (24), said unit having a motor and a transmission. To allow the pump to be supported safely whilst achieving a weight reduction, according to the invention a supporting device (30) for supporting the truck mixer pump (10) on the ground is proposed, which device is integrated into the rear drum support (20).
