Abstract (en)

[origin: WO2016011009A1] A product management display system for merchandising products on a shelf includes a rail mounting clip structure for removably coupling a front rail (9204) to a shelf (9202), the shelf having a channel structure (9304) extending along a portion of a front edge. Upon removable engagement with the shelf, the front rail (9204) may be used to engage with one or more divider (9208) and pusher devices configured to display products on a shelf (9202).
