Abstract (en)
[origin: WO2016045650A1] The invention relates to an installation (1) for producing bags from two-layer plastic film, said installation comprising a film gripper (13) for drawing the plastic film into a tool at a first station, and a rotary conveyor belt (3) for conveying the film through a plurality of stations. The film gripper (13) is designed to guide the plastic film through the first station to a second station.
