Abstract (en)

[origin: WO2016045951A1] The invention relates to a side grid (15) for furniture or for a household appliance, in particular a cooking appliance, which has at least one horizontal rod (7) for receiving carriers, wherein a drawer slide (10) is fastened to the at least one rod (7) by means of at least one quick-fastening element (20). The side grid (5) is characterized in that at least one section of the at least one quick-fastening element (20) is crimped to the rod (7) by plastic deformation. The invention further relates to a method for fastening a drawer slide (10) to a side grid (5).
