Abstract (en)

[origin: EP3199431A1] The invention relates to an attachment clip (40; 40') for fixation of movable air guiding element (21) of spoiler system (10) for extending the contour of a vehicle, wherein the attachment clip (40; 40') comprises two flexible side walls (41; 42) which curve inwards for receiving a pin (60; 60') in a space which is formed between the two side walls (41; 42). At least two sections (70; 71) are formed in the space between the two side walls (41; 42), and an elastic element (50) is provided in a first section (70) and a second section (71) is designed to receive the pin (60; 60') in a positive fit, wherein the elastic element (50) contacts the pin (60; 60').
