Abstract (en)

[origin: WO2016050550A1] Disclosed is a conveying device (100) for conveying workpieces (102), in particular vehicle bodies (104). In order to create a conveying device (100) which allows workpieces that are to be dried to be conveyed in a simple and reliable manner and to be dried efficiently, the conveying device comprises an inclined conveying device (130) which allows the workpieces to be conveyed along a direction of travel (106) at an inclined orientation running at an angle from an original orientation.
