Abstract (en)

[origin: WO2016059317A1] The invention relates to a hairstyling accessory (6) for styling the hair, intended to be coupled to an air outlet (3) of an air-blowing hairstyling device (1). The accessory (6) has a hollow body (7) with an end (8) configured to be coupled to said air outlet (3). The accessory (6) also comprises two hollow arms (9, 10) that extends the hollow body (7) at an angle, each comprising at least one opening (11) configured to discharge the blown air in a direction substantially perpendicular to a plane P passing through the two arms (9, 10). The arms are configured such that their ends (12, 13) have a mutual spacing E through which the hair passes. The invention also relates to an air-blowing hairstyling device (1) provided with such a hairstyling accessory (6).
