Abstract (en)

The invention relates to a device for marking the technical area of a bench in a football stadium. The device comprises: placement means (6a, 6b) to be placed in or on the ground (10); at least one marker extension (7); and an energy absorbing element (9a, 9b, 9c) in case of impact. The aforementioned placement means can comprise an insertable point (6a) or, alternatively, a support base (6b). Additionally, the device incorporates advertising surfaces (12, 12a, 12b) disposed on the visible parts of the placement means, the marker extension or the energy absorbing element.
