Abstract (en)

[origin: EP3222790A1] A wall tie (10) for connecting an interior wall (11) to an exterior wall (12), comprising a first wall tie part (16) and a second wall tie part (17), wherein the first wall tie part (16) is connectable to the second wall tie part (17). The first wall tie part (16) comprises a first anchor portion (19) and an eye (20). The second wall tie part (17) comprises a second anchor portion (21), a first projection (23) connected to a second projection (24) through a connecting portion (22), the projections (23, 24) being spaced apart, wherein the first projection (23) is provided with a first aperture (28), and wherein the second projection (17) is provided with a second aperture (29). The eye (20) is insertable between the projections (23, 24). The wall tie (10) also includes a pin (18) for insertion into the first aperture (28), the eye (20) and the second aperture (29) to connect the wall tie parts (16, 17). Disclosed is also a wall including such a wall tie and a method for constructing a wall.
