Abstract (en)
A portable travel swing and rocker (10) device for children includes a swing frame (30) and a rocker (60). Either or both of the swing frame (30) and the rocker (60) are foldable for ease of transport. The rocker (60) can be used in a first swinging motion mode when attached to the swing frame (30), or independently in a second rocking motion mode when detached from the swing frame (30). Electronic features and controls are optionally provided on the rocker (60) for dual mode operability.
