Abstract (en)
[origin: US2018194152A1] At least one book cover is embodied in multi-part fashion, encompassing a receiving surface fastened articulatedly on the spine and pivotable around the corresponding pivot axis. A replaceable cover element is detachably mountable on the receiving surface. At least one book cover comprises a receiving surface, fastened articulatedly on the spine and pivotable around the corresponding pivot axis, as well as a cover element. The receiving surface and the cover element are integral and the book cover is replaceable thanks to a detachable mounting of the receiving surface on the spine element.
