Abstract (en)

[origin: WO2017120311A1] Combination therapy comprising an iron compound, preferably soluble ferric pyrophosphate (SFP), in combination with a citrate compound is disclosed. Methods of using the combination therapy in the treatment of iron deficiency, with or without anemia, including iron-refractory iron deficiency anemia and other iron-sequestration syndromes, and pharmaceutical compositions and kits comprising SFP or another iron compound and a citrate compound are also disclosed.
