Abstract (en)
[origin: WO2018083003A2] Disclosed is a plaster edge bead comprising a first bead limb and a second bead limb, each of said two bead limbs having a limb face. Each of the two limb faces is delimited at opposite ends by a corner longitudinal edge and a distal longitudinal edge and each of the two bead limbs has a connecting section running along its corner longitudinal edge. The connecting sections of the two bead limbs are interconnected by a hinge that is designed to adjust and fix an angle between the bead limbs. Also disclosed in the use of a plaster edge bead of this type.
