Abstract (en)

[origin: WO2017148524A1] The low foam non-enzymatic liquid concentrate composition is based on nonionic surfactants, and is particularly useful for cleaning surgical, medical and dental instruments and flexible endoscopes prior to reuse. In particular there is provided low foamnon-enzymatic liquid concentrate compositions useful for cleaning such instruments prior to a disinfection process, as well as to methods for use of the compositions in such treatments
