Abstract (en)

[origin: WO2017160176A1] A fully customizable modular magnetic independent panel system is provided for displaying ceramic tiles. The system is composed by a panel with magnetic properties and an updating magnetic kit. The system is delivered completely for the first set up, and for the future updates, only the updating magnetic kit is delivered. The panel is composed by a thin sheet of metal applied on to a base plate. The updating kit is composed by personalized a magnetic branding in the shape the customer requires, a magnetic template for arranging the ceramic tiles onto panel, the "cut-to-dimension" magnetic pads, a tool for the removal of the old tiles and instructions.
