Abstract (en)

A waterproof fastener tape of a watertight slide fastener includes a fabric tape (1) and a waterproof layer (2). The fabric tape (1) includes a first surface (1a), a second surface (1b), a first edge, a second edge, a cord portion (11), and an extension portion (12). The cord portion (11) protrudes from the first surface (1a). The first and second edges are connected between the first and second surfaces (1a, 1b). The cord portion (11) is spaced from the first edge at a smaller distance than from the second edge. The extension portion (12) extends between the first edge and the cord portion (11). The second surface (1b) is planar. The waterproof layer (2) covers the first surface (1a), the second surface (1b), the cord portion (11), the first edge and the second edge.
