Abstract (en)
It consists of a rectangle of gender that completely covers the mattress, closing adjusted by one of the long sides with buttons, elastics, closures, tapes, velcro, brooches, in both sides that face the headboard as the feet bend towards inside to keep the cover tidy at bedtime. As it has two sides (Side "A" the part on top of the mattress and Side "B" facing the floor) after of having used the "A" side for a few days, you can turn the mattress or the mattress case to use another couple of days on Side "B" before washing it. This mattress case also has a countertop also with double face, to give it turn when using the mattress case on the B side. Among other benefits and try to solve the problem of discomfort produced by the current alternative will also allow to save water and detergents, since being able to use it on both sides will not have wash it so often, which is a great advantage in our day. Being adjusted to the mattress is not messy, so it is much easier stretch the bed the next day. It does not wrinkle, it will give you greater comfort when sleeping, it is easy to fold and easy to store.
