Abstract (en)
[origin: WO2018015144A1] The invention relates to a capsule (1), in particular for preparing a beverage product, comprises a capsule body (3), which is covered by a lid (2) and which is preferably rotationally symmetrical. A one-dimensionally machine readable code (4) is applied to, in particular printed on, the lid (2). The code (4) extends along a straight line (g) that runs through the center of area (S) of the lid. The code (4) can be read in a reading direction (r) perpendicular to the straight line (g).
